1.1 Update: COVID-19 Office Space Management and Safety – Information

Management is trying to keep the employees, families, and related groups as safe as possible. All employees have been informed that they can work remotely. The vast majority are doing so. Transportation staff is working in the office on MJTC and MPO meeting days. The Transportation Projects Director (Brad Harris), one of our Principal Transportation Planners (Brian Doherty), Fiscal Director (Linda Quinlivan), Fiscal Assistant (Christopher “Mac” McNamara), and the Executive Director (Glenn Eaton) are working in the office at least three days per week.

Management will not require an employee to attend an in-person meeting if the employee is concerned for his/her/their safety and does not wish to do so.

The office remains closed to the public. Staff may be seen by appointment. Virtually no local officials or other parties have requested in-office appointments since March 2020.
